Specific rules to be followed-

1. Parents are reminded that without their help and co-operation no significant improvement can be expected by the school to mould the student's character in the school
2. Regular study habits, prompt obedience, courtesy in speech & conduct, cleanliness of dress & person are expected
3. Students are not allowed to go out of the school campus during school hours including time.
4. Criticism of teachers or school authorities in presence of your ward should be strictly avoided by the parents because it might promote the child to lose respect for the teachers and authorities.
5. Parents / Guardians shall not dictate terms to the school authorities on disciplinary actions or they shall indulge in any form of rivalry among themselves on account of certain unwatched behavior of the students
6. Students are permitted to wear civil dress on their birthdays. Modest dress is advisable. Children are not allowed to distribute any chocolates to their friends & teachers on their birthdays. They shall not distribute any kind of gift to the teachers. Cutting cake is not allowed. Instead, Students may donate educational material to school.
7. Parents should see that the child is in school before school starts & they should manage to take the child home immediately after school.
8. Students are expected to respect school property. Any damage to school property or any other property in the premises of the school will have to be paid for, by the student responsible for the damage
9. The School is self-financed hence school has authority to revise the fee structure (according to the rules governed by the Edu. Dept.) whenever need arises to meet the expenditure of the school.
10. School management has all rights to decide and plan for Annual Function, Sports, Events, Co-curricular & extra curricular activities and Field visits, Parents interference is not acceptable for the same.
11. Parking of Vehicles other than student's bicycles and staff's vehicles are strictly prohibited inside school campus.
12. Students and Teachers are not allowed to use mobile phones inside school campus.
13. Parents should meet PRO (Public Relation Officer) regarding any school matters.
14. Prior permission should be taken before meeting any teacher or HM on week days.

I have read the rules and regulations of the school given in the prospectus and I agree to abide by them as interpreted by the school authorities. I certify that the above information and statements are correct to the best of my knowledge.
